S I R:

In response to the Notice to File Missing Parts, mailed December 5, 2005, it will be noted that the Notice requires the filing of a translation of the application into English. However, as the above-identified national stage application was originally filed in English (see the published PCT international stage application), no translation of the application into English is required to be filed.

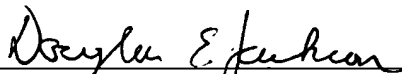

It is therefore assumed that the requirement for an English translation of this application was made in error; and it is requested that an acknowledgement be provided that this translation requirement has been withdrawn.

As no English translation needs to be provided in this response to the Notice to File Missing Parts, we have also not paid the fee of $130 for submitted an English translation which is also indicated as being required.

If there is any problem with withdrawing this English translation requirement in view of the above, please contact the undersigned as soon as practical.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: February 6, 2006
